

AT THE AUDITORIUM.

East Lynne Presented to a Crowded House Last Night.

At the Auditorium last night the Lyceum Theater company presented Mrs. Henry Wood's famous drama in five acts, East Lynne, to a large audience. Mr. Ellsworth made a good Archibald Carlyle, his conception of the part being excellent. Miss Shirley appeared for the first time in the dual role of Lady Isabelle and Madame Vine. She gave the presentation of that part in an admirable manner, her emotional work in the third act, and the death scene of the last act being superb. As Cornelia Carlyle, Miss Zula Ellsworth was a success. Character work is certainly her line, and her "Cecile" was well received last night. Mr. Widner is not as successful as Francis Levison, as he is in comedy. Barbara Hare was presented by Miss Widner and as Joyce, Miss Fowler was a winning lassie. Ethel May was good as Little Willie. She is only 4 years old, and is certainly clever in every thing she undertakes.

Tonight the company will present that rural comedy drama, made famous by Minnie Maddern, "Caprice," Miss Shirley as Mercy Baxter; Mr. Ellsworth as Jethro Baxter and Mr. Coville as Jack Henderson.

On Friday night next the company will present the great military drama, Lynwood, for the benefit of the Waco Light Guards.

Hood's Brigade Reunion.

Messrs. E. J. Parrent, Jno. C. West, W. H. Lessing, Joe Lehman, D. C. Jones, Major Griffin, J. D. Bailey and Jack Adams, members of Hood's old brigade, left this morning for Cameron to attend the reunion which takes place there today, it being the thirty ninth anniversary of the battle of Gaines Mill.

Other ex-Confederates accompanied them, and the South Bosque band, invited by the people of Cameron, went down last evening.

HOODLUMS AT LARGE.

They Accost a Member of the Salvation Army.

A member of the Salvation Army was accosted on Sunday evening last on Sixth street, between Austin and Franklin streets, by two hoodlums who attempted to intimidate him, and insisting that the Soldier of the Cross tell them the dwelling place of the ladies who are workers in the Waco corps. He refused to answer and without noticing the ruffians, continued on his way. He was again stopped and informed that if he did not give the desired information that they would use force. With a reply that showed no fear the army man passed on.

This shows that Waco is the abiding place of a class of hoodlums that neither respect religion, virtue or law and order when workers in the cause of religion are thus attacked upon the streets of the city, that while such characters who are classified as vagrants are at large they are a constant menace to the safety of the law abiding citizens of Waco. The members of the Salvation Army are faithful workers in the cause they represent and sincere in their professions.

Advertising With Balloons.

We have made arrangements to send up on Tuesday night, July 24, six immense 4th of July balloons. They will travel from 10 to 100 miles from Waco and have an ascending power of from 1000 to 2000 feet according to atmospheric condition. They will advertise Waco, taking with them "Cutters Guide to Waco," copies of all Waco papers and other advertising matter. They will also carry a quantity of fire works so arranged as to be discharged at different latitudes, a limited quantity of advertising matter of any business in Waco will be sent up in them if the same is left at our office. In each balloon will be placed a sealed envelope, each envelope containing an order on Goldstein & Migel varying in amount from $5 to $25. If you wish to advertise Waco please make mention of the matter.

GOLDSTEIN & MIGEL.
